

Dunedin Community House & The Valley Project

Building positive workplace culture together health & safety workshop

Managing workplace challenges: Prevention and response to bullying & sexual harassment

You are invited to join your colleagues to learn more about bullying and sexual harassment. We'll find out what they are, what the impacts are and why we should care. The workshop will be delivered by Trudy Schievink.

We'll discuss our own views, what we can do when we discover sexual harassment and what we can do to prevent it.

If you have any questions or concerns please speak to Bronwyn or Rob at Weave Together who will work with you to ensure you can attend a suitable session call free on 0800 100962.

Dates: Thursday 20 May 2021

OR Monday 24 May 2021

Time: 1:30PM - 4:30PM

Location: Alexander MacMillan Room

Dunedin Community House

Cost: FREE!

RSVP forms.gle/wq2EyUYpMxkMkse27

Trudy Schievink

Trudy is Training & Development Manager at Workplace Support and has an extensive training and development, counselling and supervision background, with a variety of clients throughout New Zealand, along with alcohol and other drug policy advisor experience. Trudy has a passion for enhancing wellbeing, especially within the workplace and sees employee wellbeing as key to successful and innovative organisations.

